DEFAULTS; REMEDIES

7.1 Events of Default.

The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a material default and breach of this Lease by Tenant (an “Event of Default”):

7.1.1 Vacation Abandonment.

If Tenant abandons or vacates the Premises;

7.1.2 Failure to Pay.

If Tenant fails to pay any Rent or any other monetary payment as and when due and fails to cure same within three (3) days of written notice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in the event Tenant fails to pay Rent or any other monetary payment as and when due on more than one (1) occasion in any calendar year, then any further Rent or monetary failure in such calendar year shall constitute an event of default without any notice or opportunity to cure.

7.1.5 Transfer.

The assignment, subletting or other Transfer or any attempted assignment, subletting or other Transfer, of this Lease in violation of Article 4.3

7.1.6 Failure to Perform.

If Tenant fails to perform any of Tenant's nonmonetary obligations under this Lease for a period of ten (10) days after written notice from Landlord; provided that if more time is required to complete such performance, Tenant shall not be in default if Tenant commences such performance within the thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently pursues its completion. However, Landlord shall not be required to give such notice if Tenant's failure to perform constitutes a non-curable breach of this Lease. and further provided that if such cure cannot be completed within the sixty (60) day period immediately following such ten (10) day period, then, notwithstanding any of the foregoing, an Event of Default shall be deemed to occur, and no further notice or demand of any kind shall be required from the Landlord.

7.1.7 Other Defaults.

(i) If Tenant makes a general assignment or general arrangement for the benefit of creditors; (ii) a petition for adjudication of bankruptcy or for reorganization or rearrangement is filed by or against Tenant and is not dismissed within thirty (30) days; (iii) if a trustee or receiver is appointed to take possession of all or substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Premises or of Tenant's interest in the Lease and possession is not restored to Tenant within thirty (30) days; or (iv) if all or substantially all of Tenant's assets located at the Premises or of Tenant's interest in this Lease is subjected to attachment, execution or other judicial seizure which is not discharged within thirty (30) days. If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any of the acts described in this Subsection is not a default under this Lease, and a trustee is appointed to take possession (or if Tenant remains a debtor in possession) and such trustee or Tenant transfers Tenant's interest hereunder, then Landlord shall receive, as Additional Rent, the difference between the Rent (or any other consideration) paid in connection with such assignment or sublease and the Rent payable by Tenant hereunder.

The notices required by this Section in lieu of, and not in addition to, any notice required under Florida Statute §83.20 or any other law now or hereafter in effect requiring that notice of default be given prior to the commencement of an unlawful detainer or other legal proceeding.

7.1 Remedies.

7.2.1 With or without judicial process, enter the Premises and take possession of any and all goods, inventory, equipment, fixtures and all other personal property of Tenant, which is or may be put into the Premises during the Term, whether exempt or not from sale under execution or attachment (it being agreed that said property shall at all times be bound with a lien in favor of Landlord and shall be chargeable for all Rent and for the fulfillment of the other covenants and agreements herein contained), and Landlord may sell all or any part thereof at public or private sale. Tenant agrees that ten (10) days prior notice of any public or private sale shall constitute reasonable notice. The proceeds of any such sale shall be applied, (i) first, to the payment of all costs and expenses of conducting the sale or caring for or storing said property (including reasonable attorneys' fees); (ii) second, toward the payment of any indebtedness, including (without limitation) indebtedness for Rent, which may be or may become due from Tenant to Landlord; and (iii) third, to pay Tenant, on demand, any surplus remaining after all indebtedness of Tenant to Landlord has been fully paid;

7.2.2 Perform, on behalf and at the expense of Tenant, any obligation of Tenant under this Lease which Tenant has failed to perform and of which Landlord shall have given Tenant notice, the cost of which performance by Landlord, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date of such expenditure, shall be deemed Additional Rent and shall be payable by Tenant to Landlord upon demand. Notwithstanding the provisions of this clause (b) and regardless of whether an Event of Default shall have occurred, Landlord may exercise the remedy described in this clause (b) without any notice to Tenant if Landlord, in its good faith judgment, believes it would be materially injured by failure to take rapid action or if the unperformed obligation of Tenant constitutes an emergency. Any such acts by Landlord in performing Tenant's obligations shall not be deemed to cure any Event of Default or constitute any waiver of Landlord's right to exercise any or all remedies set forth in this Lease;

7.2.3 Terminate this Lease and the tenancy created hereby, by any lawful means, in which case this Lease shall terminate, and Tenant shall immediately surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord. In such event, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant all damages incurred by Landlord by reason of Tenant's default including, but not limited to, the cost of recovering possession of the Premises, expenses of subletting, including necessary renovation and alteration of the Premises; reasonable attorney's fees; the worth at the time of award by the court having jurisdiction thereof of the amount by which the unpaid rent and other charges and adjustments called for herein for the balance of the term after the time of such award exceeds the amount of such loss for the same period that Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided; and that portion of any leasing commission paid by Landlord and applicable to the unexpired term of this Lease. Unpaid installments of rent or other sums shall bear interest from the date due at the Default Rate;

7.2.4 Maintain Tenant's right to possession, in which case this Lease shall continue in effect whether or not Tenant shall have abandoned the Premises. In such event, Landlord shall be entitled to enforce all of the Landlord's rights and remedies under this Lease, including the right to recover the rent and any other charges and adjustments as may become due hereunder; or pursue any other remedy now or hereafter available to Landlord under the laws or judicial decisions of the State in which the Premises is located;

7.2.5 Immediately or at any time hereafter, and with or without notice, except as required herein, set off any money of Tenant held by Landlord under this Lease against any sum owing by

Tenant hereunder;

7.2.6 Enforce, and Tenant hereby consents to such enforcement, notwithstanding the laws of the State of Florida to the contrary, all of Landlord's self-help remedies available at law or in equity without Landlord's resorting to any legal or judicial process, procedures, or actions;

7.2.7 Bring an action against Tenant for any damages sustained by Landlord or any equitable relief available to Landlord; or

7.2.8 Pursue any and all remedies available under Florida law.

7.3 Damages.

7.3.1 Should Landlord elect to take possession of the Premises, Landlord may, but need not, relet the Premises or any part thereof for such rent and upon such terms as Landlord, in its sole discretion, shall determine (including the right to relet the Premises for a greater or lesser term than that remaining under this Lease, the right to relet the Premises as a part of a larger area, and the right to change the character or use made of the Premises). In connection with or in preparation for any reletting, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, make repairs, alterations and additions in or to the Premises and redecorate the same to the extent Landlord deems necessary or desirable, and Tenant shall, upon demand, pay the cost thereof, together with Landlord's expenses of reletting, including, without limitation, any commission incurred by Landlord. If Landlord decides to relet the Premises or a duty to relet is imposed upon Landlord by law, Landlord and Tenant agree that nevertheless Landlord shall at most be required to use only the same efforts Landlord then uses to lease Premises in the Building generally and that in any case that Landlord shall not be required to give any preference or priority to the showing or leasing of the Premises over any other space that Landlord may be leasing or have available and may place a suitable prospective tenant in any such other space regardless of when such other space becomes available. Landlord shall not be required to observe any instruction given by Tenant about any reletting or accept any tenant offered by Tenant unless such offered tenant has a credit-worthiness acceptable to Landlord and leases the entire Premises upon terms and conditions including a rate of rent (after giving effect to all expenditures by Landlord for tenant improvements, broker's commissions and other leasing costs) all no less favorable to Landlord than as called for in this Lease, nor shall Landlord be required to make or permit any assignment or sublease for more than the current term or which Landlord would not be required to permit under the Lease.

7.3.2 Should Landlord elect to take possession of the Premises, Tenant will pay to Landlord monthly rent and other sums as provided in this lease that would be payable under this lease if such repossession had not occurred, less the net proceeds, if any, of any reletting of the Premises after deducting all of Landlord's reasonable expenses in connection with such reletting, including without limitation all repossession costs, brokerage commissions, attorneys' fees, expenses of employees, alteration and repair costs, and expenses of preparation for such reletting. If, in connection with any reletting, the new lease term extends beyond the existing term, or the Premises covered by such new lease include other Premises not part of the Premises, a fair apportionment of the rent received from such reletting and the expenses incurred in connection with such reletting as provided in this Section will be made in determining the net proceeds from such reletting. Tenant will pay such rent and other sums to Landlord on the day on which such rent would have been payable under this lease if possession had not been retaken, and Landlord will be entitled to receive such rent and other sums from Tenant on each such day.

7.3.3 Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, in the event of default, and without regard to whether or not possession shall have been surrendered to or taken by Landlord, Landlord shall have the right, at its option, to declare the rent for the entire remaining term immediately due and payable, and may commence action immediately thereupon and recover judgment therefor. If such accelerated sums are required by law to be reduced to present value, then the present value shall be calculated using a discount rate equal to the current interest rate in effect as of the date of default established pursuant to Section 55.03 Florida Statutes for judgment subject to the credit for net proceeds described in Section 7.3.2.

7.3.4 Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, in the event of default, Landlord shall have the right, at its option, without further demand or notice, to cure any event of default and to charge Tenant for the cost of effecting such cure, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and interest at the highest legal rate, provided that Landlord will have no obligation to cure any such event of default of Tenant.

7.3.5 If this lease is terminated by Landlord on account of the occurrence of an event of default, Tenant will remain liable to Landlord for all damages which have accrued under the Lease until the date of termination.

7.4 Cumulative Remedies.

Any suit or suits for the recovery of possession, damages or otherwise may be brought by Landlord, from time to time, at Landlord's election, and nothing in this lease will be deemed to require Landlord to await the date upon which this lease or the term would have expired had there occurred no event of default. Each right and remedy provided for in this lease is cumulative and is in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this lease or now or after the lease date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise, and the exercise or beginning of the exercise by Landlord of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in this lease or now or after the lease date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise will not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by Landlord of any or all other rights or remedies provided for in this lease or now or after the lease date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise. All costs incurred by Landlord in collecting any amounts and damages owing by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this lease or to enforce any provision of this lease, including reasonable attorneys' fees from the date any such matter is turned over to an attorney, whether or not one or more actions are commenced by Landlord, will also be recoverable by Landlord from Tenant. On the occurrence of any Event of Default by Tenant, Landlord may, at any time thereafter, with or without notice or demand and without limiting Landlord in the exercise of any right or remedy which Landlord may have:

8.3 Alterations: Tenant shall make no alterations without Landlord's written consent.

In such event, Tenant agrees to look solely to Landlord's successor in interest for any liability arising after such sale or conveyance. Except as set forth in this paragraph, this Lease shall not be affected by any sale or conveyance of the Premises by Landlord, and Tenant agrees to attorn to Landlord's successor in interest.

No failure by the Landlord to insist upon the strict performance of any term or condition of this Lease, or to exercise any right or remedy available on a breach thereof, and no acceptance of full or partial rental during the continuance of any such breach shall constitute a waiver of any such breach or any such term or condition. No term or condition of this Lease required to be performed by the Tenant, and no breach thereof, shall be waived, altered or modified, except by written instrument executed by the Landlord. No waiver of any breach shall affect or alter any term or condition in full force and effect with respect to any other than existing or subsequent breach thereof.
